

"The Barry Barnett Collection"

*"Where Shadows End"/Blue Creek, Astor, Florida
Barry Barnett/Artist International*

Where Buck's Trail fades into the backwater of Blue Creek tall cypress rise up from amber shallows. These silent sentinels are host to a canopy of Spanish moss entwined in curtains of emerald green laced with deep purple. Here the Florida black bear is the master of shadows. Occasionally the sun will reveal a domain where shadows end and a black bears mischief begins.
